Long Term Disability Insurance

Benefit Highlights for:
County of Santa Cruz – Corrections
What is Contributory Long Term Disability Insurance?	Contributory Long Term Disability Insurance pays you a portion of your Earnings if you cannot work because of a disabling illness or injury. This highlight sheet is an overview of your Contributory Long Term Disability Insurance. Once a group policy is issued to your employer, a certificate of Insurance will be available to explain your coverage in detail.
What is disability?	Disability is defined in The Hartford's contract with your employer. Typically, disability means that you cannot perform one or more of the essential duties of your occupation due to injury, sickness, pregnancy or other medical condition covered by the insurance. Once you have been disabled for 12 months, you must be prevented from performing one or more of the essential duties of any occupation.
Eligibility	Active Employees of the Employer in the Corrections Officer Representation Unit in a budgeted position (including a limited term employee), who is a citizen or resident of the United States, working at least 20 hours per week respectively (15 hours per week if on temporary work furlough (reduction in hours)).
How much coverage would I have?	Your Employer requires that you purchase coverage that pays you a benefit of 66.67% of your Earnings to a maximum monthly benefit of $3,000 per month. Earnings are defined as in The Hartford's contract with your employer.
When can I enroll?	As an eligible Employee, you are automatically covered by Contributory Long Term Disability Insurance; you do not have to enroll.
When is it effective?	Coverage goes into effect subject to the terms and conditions of the policy. You must be Actively at Work with your employer on the day your coverage takes effect.
How long do I have to wait before I can receive my benefit?	You must be disabled for at least 30 days before you can receive a Contributory Long Term Disability Insurance benefit payment.
How long will my disability payments continue?	For as long as you remain disabled, or until you reach your Social Security Normal Retirement Age (as stated in the 1983 revision of the United States Social Security Act.), whichever is sooner.
Can the duration or amount of my benefit be reduced?	Yes. Your benefit duration may be reduced once you reach certain ages as specified in The Hartford's contract with your employer. In addition, as described below within the Important Details, your monthly Long Term benefit may be reduced by other income you receive.
