

The daily roster report is used to ensure that the Risk Assessment Tool is being applied correctly and that only the appropriate youth remain in detention.

At a glance you can see who is in custody, the offense, the RAI score, and how many days the youth has been detained by ethnicity and gender.

The roster report also shows daily admissions, releases, and youth on detention alternatives by ethnicity and gender.

