Santa Cruz County Probation Department Home Supervision Contract

TO: _____

Under the provisions of section 628.1 of the California Welfare and Institutions Code, you have been placed on Home Supervision.

You must obey all laws and all of the provisions below without exception, or you will be returned to the Juvenile Hall. The Home Supervision Officer may contact you in person or by phone as often as they deem appropriate. The purpose of these visits is to make sure you are obeying all the terms of Home Supervision and that your home continues to be an appropriate place for your detention. If for any reason you are thought to be in danger to yourself, or to others, you may be placed back in Juvenile Hall.

Rules for Home Supervision:

1. Go to school or work on scheduled days.
2. When not at school or work, you are to stay home.
3. Do not violate any laws.
4. Friends are NOT allowed to visit.
5. Obey your parents and/or guardians, Probation Officer, and Home Supervision Officer.
6. Leave a note or contact the Probation Department when leaving your home with your parents for any reason other than school or work.
7. Be at Juvenile Court hearings and interviews as directed.
8. Any exception to these rules must be cleared with the Home Supervision Officer IN ADVANCE.
9. Must remain within the County at all times unless approved by the Probation Department.
10. No gang paraphernalia, no new tattoos.
11. Attend counseling as directed by Probation.
12. Submit to drug testing and search of your home and person if necessary.
13. Specific terms:
 - Attend NA/AA meetings as directed.
 - Complete Community Service hours as directed.
 - Enroll in school and show proof of enrollment prior to next court appearance.
 - Seek employment
 - Pursuant to W & I Code section 830.1 and your contract, the Santa Cruz County Probation Department and HS/EMP Counselors will share information pertaining to your compliance with court orders and your detention contract.
14. Call the Home Supervision Officer each day after your release at 454-3831.

I agree to obey all the rules, or be returned to Juvenile Hall.

Home Address:

I agree to cooperate with the Probation Department and to enforce the terms of this contract.
